Back-to-School with Phoenix Public Library

Phoenix Public Library offers free programs and resources to help students, parents, and educators start the school year strong.

Join Tools for School, a weekly class for ages 3–5, or register for Kindergarten Bootcamp, a seven-week series for children preparing for Kindergarten. Plus, library cardholders can access Scholastic Teachables, a collection of printable worksheets and activities. Learn more at PhoenixPublicLibrary.org.

School and Business Partnership

The annual Partner with a Principal program is ready to connect with more local businesses and organizations!

Business owners will be matched with a Phoenix school, meet with school administration for a day and find ways to build partnerships that support students, educators, and the community.

Learn more and sign up at Phoenix.gov/Education.

Photo Safety: Slow Down in School Zones

Students are heading back to school, which means more children on bikes, sidewalks and in crosswalks.

This is a reminder that Photo Safety cameras will return to Phoenix school zones, in addition to the nine cameras that rotate throughout the City year-round.

Please remember to slow down, watch for children, and take extra care in school zones. Better a Flash, Than a Crash!

Learn more at Phoenix.gov/PhotoSafety.

Protect Against West Nile Virus

Mosquito-borne viruses are most likely to spread from May through October due to increased humidity and standing water from summer storms. Maricopa County recently reported the first West Nile death of the mosquito season.

Reduce your risk by remembering the 4 R's:

- Repel mosquitoes using EPA-registered insect repellent.
- Remove standing water from your home and yard.
- Repair or replace damaged window and door screens.
- Remind your neighbors and friends about mosquito safety.

Protect yourself and loved ones by visiting Maricopa.gov, keyword: "Fight the Bite."

We invite you to help reduce stormwater pollution by participating in the annual Stormwater Awareness Week, Sept. 21-27.

Stormwater can pick up pollutants such as oil or trash, impacting our rivers, washes, and parks. Your simple everyday actions can make a huge difference and improve stormwater quality and our environment.

Find out how you can prevent stormwater pollution at Phoenix.gov/Stormwater.

Regreso a clases con la Biblioteca de Phoenix

La Biblioteca Pública de Phoenix ofrece recursos gratis para ayudar a estudiantes, padres y educadores a iniciar el año escolar.

Participa en "Tools for School", una clase semanal para niños de 3 a 5 años, o inscríbete en "Kindergarten Bootcamp", para niños que se preparan para el kínder. Además, quienes tengan una tarjeta de la biblioteca pueden acceder a una colección de hojas de trabajo y actividades imprimibles.

Más información en PhoenixPublicLibrary.org.

Alianza entre escuelas y negocios

¡El programa anual "Partner with a Principal" está comenzando listo para conectar con más negocios y organizaciones locales!

Tú, como dueño de un negocio, serás asignado a una escuela de Phoenix, te reunirás con la administración escolar por un día y buscarás formas de construir una relación que apoye a estudiantes, educadores y a la comunidad.

Obtén más información e inscríbete en Phoenix.gov/Education.

Reduce la velocidad en las zonas escolares

Los estudiantes regresan a clases, lo que significa que habrá más niños en bicicleta, en las aceras y en los cruces peatonales.

Te recordamos que las cámaras de seguridad fotográfica han vuelto a las zonas escolares de Phoenix, junto a las 17 cámaras en toda la ciudad, así que recuerda reducir la velocidad, estar atento a los niños y extremar las precauciones en zonas escolares. ¡Más vale un flashazo que un golpazo!

Más información en Phoenix.gov/PhotoSafety.

Protégete contra el virus del Nilo

Es más probable que los virus transmitidos por mosquitos se propaguen entre mayo y octubre debido a la humedad y al agua estancada por las tormentas de verano. Recientemente, el condado de Maricopa reportó la primera muerte por el virus del Nilo Occidental de la temporada de mosquitos.

Reduce tu riesgo de enfermedades transmitidas por mosquitos recordando las 4 R's:

- Repela a los mosquitos usando repelente de insectos aprobado por la EPA.
- Remueve el agua estancada de tu casa.
- Repara las mallas de ventanas y puertas.
- Recuérdales a tus vecinos y amigos sobre la seguridad contra mosquitos.

Protégete tú mismo y a tus seres queridos visitando Maricopa.gov y busca: "Fight the Bite".

Te invitamos a ayudar a reducir la contaminación de las aguas pluviales participando en la Semana Anual de Concientización sobre Aguas Pluviales, del 21 al 27 de septiembre.

El agua de lluvia puede arrastrar contaminantes como aceite o basura, afectando a nuestros ríos, arroyos y parques. Tus acciones diarias pueden hacer una diferencia y mejorar el medio ambiente.

Mira qué hacer para prevenir la contaminación en Phoenix.gov/Stormwater.

Asegurando el futuro del agua de Phoenix

¿Sabías que la Ciudad de Phoenix se encuentra en una Alerta de Agua Etapa 1?

Esto significa que la conservación es más importante que nunca.

Aquí algunas formas sencillas para ahorrar agua:

- 1) Detecta y repara fugas, 2) Revisa tu factura de servicios municipales, 3) Usa controladores de riego inteligentes, 4) Cambia a plantas desérticas, y 5) Comparte la mentalidad de conservación.

Para más sobre las condiciones de sequía a largo plazo: Phoenix.gov/WaterFuture.
